July 22, 1915.

BRIEFS

Watermelons at Reinhart's. Lemons, oranges and bananas at Rein-

Mazda electric lamps 27 cents each at Canned shad, next week-try it-at New crop turnip seed in bulk at Hill's

Fresh potato chips every Saturday at at Reinhart's. Meet me in the arbor at Owens & Miller's drug store. Fishing tackle "that's fit for fishing" at Hill's Pharmacy Butter is 18 cents a pound and eggs are to cents a dozen.

Dynamite for stone and stumps, lowest prices, at Hodges'.

Sherwin-Williams paints and varnishes at Hill's Pharmacy. Teas for iced teas and coffees for iced offees at Reinhart's. Try Rexall foot powder for tired, aching teet. Owens & Miller. For Sale-A fine Shropshire ram three years old. C. G. Felker. Cement and wall plaster and threshing coal at flodges' elevators.

Be sure to attend the lawn fete on the old college campus Saturday evening. Toothache? Prompt relief by using Owens & Miller's toothache wax-10c.

Wheat is quoted today in the local market at $1,06 a bushel and corn at 80 cents. For that headache, try Owens & Miller's Menthol headache tablets-10 cents a doz-

Don't forget to sow some old rye for tall and spring pasture. Apply to Wm. H. Martin. Don't go away on your vacation until Owens & Miller have them. it is expected that 7,000 persons will Harper's Ferry, next Thursday. Last Thursday was St. Swithin's day, and as there was rain then the old legend insures rain for the next forty days. The Register office is prepared to do all sorts of printing promptly and satisfactordy. Bring or send us your orders. Owens & Miller are not only the leading druggists, but are also Victrola agents. May we show you how you may have a

Everyone is talking about Norris' exmsite candies. They are worth smacking your lips over. For sale by Owens

eay. Owens & Miller.

The best cold cream or vanishing cream | end of the county. is the Violet Dulce, also for sunburn Owens & Miller's almond lotion. These are THE toilet preparations.

The wheat crop on H. M. Turner's farm near town, managed by William Graffith, made an average yield of 22 bushels to the acre this year.

Sheep! Sheep! Selling stock ewes a reasonable price while they last. Sheep are at Joe Byers' farm, near Shep-The Hagerstown Herald says that E

P. Eyler, of that city, has been spending lew days along the Potomac after "the wiley bass." This must be a new variety.

Dr. Burwell caught a 12-pound carp vesterday near Dam No. 4. A great many of these fish, some of them very large, have been caught in that neighbor-

An exchange will be held Saturday of his week at M. B. Baker's store by the ladies' missionary society of the Lutheran Church. Cakes, pies, candy and other good things will be sold.

For Sale-One rubber-tire Thrush & thrush & Stough buggy, used only one and two seasons, respectively. Both in good condition. Mrs. J. E. Triplett.

will be held on Friday and Saturday, July at 4 o'clock, and refreshments of various | were greatly frightened. kinds will be served. Everybody is in-

Mr. Jarrett had a handsome pair of ponies brought from New York to Wild pose Farm a few days ago for his little needed their cup of happiness is full and he members of the Pentecostal Church on Main street formerly occupled by the telephone company, and are folding religious services there. Six morning dishabille were observed. its to this faith were immersed in Potomac river at Bellevue last Sunday alternoon, a considerable crowd beg present to witness the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Mr. Law-

Robert O. McGraw, representing Cole rothers Lightning Rod Company of St. ouis, offers his services to the people of ghtning rods in the most satisfactory manner and at reasonable rates. Sciendepended upon. Write him a postal and a fine crop if the season shall continue weeks. he will call upon you. Mr. McGraw has favorable. lust titled up the barns of Geo. W. Osourn and Wm. C. Myers, east of town.

Mrs. S. D. Engle had the misfortune to Step on a fork while gathering eggs in the the corn crib on the farm of Miss Sallie stable one day last week. The fork had H. Sperow, near Spring Mills, Berkeley been carelessly thrown down in the hay county, tenanted by Norman H. Snyder, by the colored boy and Mrs. Engle did entailing a loss of nearly $4,000. It was not see it. The prongs pierced her ankle discovered about 6.15 o'clock and nothing to the bone and her physician gave her could be done to stay the work of the medical attention. Thinking it would flames. All of the live stock and farm Rive her no more trouble, Mrs. Engle went machinery were rescued, but 1,000 bushels about her household duties, but her foot of wheat just harvested and about 25 tons began swelling and pained her severely of hay went up in smoke, together with and there was every indication of tetanus other material. The barn was comparaby administered and she improved rapidly, and although the would is still painful, she is now out of danger.—Advocate.

It is now out of d is now out of danger.—Advocate.

LITTLE LOCALS.

The summer school at Shepherd College, which has been in successful operation for the past six weeks, closed yesterday, and the students have dispersed to

Charles B. VanMetre is limping this week as the result of a very sore foot. While working at the National Highway Garage he got a bad puncture by stepping on a nail that penetrated his foot. Dr. Banks gave him surgical attention. Shepherdstown played a double-header game of ball with Berryville at the latter place last Thursday. We won the first by a score of 8 to 5, but lost the second. a five-inning contest, by 2 to 1. A doubleheader game is to be played on the Shep-"Preferred Stock" Orange Pekoe Tea herdstown diamond this Thursday.

Joe Wheeler, the cook at the Jefferson Lunch Room, left a few days ago for a visit of a few weeks in Carlisle, Pa. He was resplendent in his company clothes. his decorations including light trousers, speckled vest, black coat, lavender tie, bright green hat ribbon and No. 11 shoes.

The Register has added a number of past week, and we thank our friends for Railway. their patronage. We would like to add about three hundred more and make our list an even 2,000. If you read this, send us a dollar and we will send you the Register a year.

freezer of delicious chocolate icecream just made by the 'efferson Lunch Room somehow got sah in it and could not be used. The society editor of the Register told proprietor Shipley that if he would put coaloil in the icecream the salt would never be noticed, but he didn't seem impressed by the suggestion.

The Baltimore & Ohio Railroad on l'uesday placed an order for 2,000 steel hopper cars and 50 passenger coaches, to cost some $2,500,000. It is a great pity that the order for coal hoppers was not cut to, say, 1,998, so that the money Get the habit of drinking limeade. saved could be applied to building a Fresh limes always on hand at Owens & decent station at Shenandoah Junction to replace the old shack now in use.

The National Highway Garage has secured the agency for the Ford automobiles for Shepherdstown and vicinity, and will hereafter sell these popular cars as well you have all the necessary toilet articles. as the Overland. This garage will also be a Ford station, where a full line of accessories and repairs will be kept in attend the B. & O. picnic at Island Park, stock, giving excellent service to the owners of Ford cars.

The Norfolk & Western Railway will run an excursion to Pen-Mar next Thursday, July 29th, the special train leaving Shepherdstown at 8.19 a. m. Fare for the round trip only one dollar. The Presbyterian reunion will be held on this date. On August 5th another excursion will be run, leaving Shepherdstown at 9.40 a. m., on account of the Odd Fellows' reunion.

Work is being pushed along rapidly on C. N. Whiting's big new flouring mill on Washington street. The structure has been framed in part, and the outside sheathing is now being put on. The timbers of which the building is con-Did you buy a bottle of Owens & Mil- structed are enormously heavy, and everything about the mill is to be of the most substantial character. It will be by long odds the best mill ever operated in this

> About 500 yearling bass, consigned to R. C. Ringgold and Baylor Reinhart, were received here last Thursday night from the United States Fish Commission and were at once placed in the Potomac river at the foot of Princess street. They were lively young fellows from two to three inches long. It had been expected that about 10,000 of the fish would be sent here, and there was considerable disappointment at the limited number re-

> We learn that typhoid fever has made its appearance in the family of Charles T. Hollida, in the Scrabble neighborhood, Berkeley county, and that an investigation indicates that the trouble originated in the well, the water of which has been found to be polluted. The well is a deep driven one, and there is surprise that it should have become contaminated. The use of the well has been stopped, which is a matter of much inconvenience to Mr.

Hollida and his family. Lightning stirred up quite an excitement Monday evening at the home of J. tion. P. Kearfott, at Kearneysville. A heavy high runabout, and one rubber-tire charge of electricity followed the telephone wires into the house and besides burning out the 'phone and scorching the box did other slight damage in the The annual festival at Marvin Chapel room. Fortunately no person was in the room at the time. Mr. Kearfott, who was 30th and 31st, at the church. Supper on the front porch, was considerably will be served each evening, beginning shocked and other member of the family

> A horse belonging to L. W. Thompson reated a sensation early last Saturday morning when it ran down Main street with the fragments of a buggy hanging to it. The horse fell at the hotel corner.

sons, Teddy and Billy, together with a and it was caught and put under control. aice outhit of vehicles, harness, saddles, The most notable feat of the runaway anetc. The boys think that nothing more is | imal was the effective manner in which it broke through two heavy gates at the entrance of the alley at Miss Annie Licklider's home-it went through them as though they were paper. Incidentally, the noise of the runaway attracted so much attention that many different styles in

The intensely hot weather the past week seemed to be making up for the cooler weather the first of the month, and it must be admitted that it made the average very much like the real July temperature. The heat wave was broken on Monday, when a series of thunder storms, beginning at noon, prevailed throughout the afternoon and evening. his section. He is prepared to fit up There were several fine showers of rain uses, barns and other structures with which came most opportunely for the growing corn and for the gardens. The most luxuriantly, with every prospect for the methods are used and results may be corn is looking splendid and is growing

> Fire that is believed to have been caused by spontaneous combustion early Tuesday morning destroyed the large new barn and

PERSONAL NOTES.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Gross and their son Eugene, of Pittsburg, and Miss Ethel Bardall, of Moundsville, W. Va., drove from Pittsburg to Shepherdstown last week in their Overland car, and spent several days with the family of Mr. Wm. H. Johnson, north of town. They left Pittsburg at 5 a. m. and reached their destination at 6.30 p. m., having made the distance of 214.2 miles safely and comfortably in thirteen and a-half hours.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Hubbard, of Rice, Va., have been here the past week visiting their relatives and friends. Mr. Hubbard, who is an expert tobacco buyer, leaves this week for South Carolina, where he will begin the season's business. Mrs. Hubbard will remain here a month or two longer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. F. A. Byerly and her daughter, Miss Mary, left yesterday for St. Paul,

Minn, and from that place they will protrip is made possible by the generosity

Miss Ellen Welshans, who has been parts of the West during the past eight months, has returned to her home in Shepherdstown. Her friends here are Yesterday a pertectly good ten-gallon glad to greet her again and to see her looking so well.

Mrs. Clifford Roach and her two daughers, Misses Savilla and Helen, of Baltimore, Mrs. W. Stuart Daniels and her little son, of Pittsburg, and Mrs. J. Edward home of Mr. F. O. Trump at Kearneys-Mr. L. B. Nottingham, his son, Mr.

Spencer Nottingham, and his daughter,

Miss Lenore Nottingham, of Louisville, Ky., are guests at the Episcopal rectory. They motored here from Louisville, coming by way of Roanoke. Mrs. Nathaniel Burwell and Mrs. Craig Huff spent a day or two the first of the week with the family of Dr. Reynolds who has been very sick, is reported to be somewhat better. Rev. H. L. Hout, one of the prominent ministers of the Southern Methodist Church in Washington City, spent a couple of days in Shepherdstown last week with nis sister, Miss Lottie Hout.

near Hancock. Mrs. Kate Reynolds,

Misses Anna and Minnie Reisner, of McConnellsburg, Pa., and Miss Mildred Reisner, of Hagerstown, are spending a couple of weeks at Mr. W. H. Knode's, opposite Shepherdstown.

Misses Hildred and Gladys Marlatt and Lula and Virginia Winters, of Harper's Ferry, left last Thursday for San Francisco. where they will attend the exposition and visit points of interest. Mr. and Mrs. W. Boyd Licklider and been visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Whiting in Shepherdstown this week. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Emmons, of Baltimore, have been here the past week

Mrs. Willis E. Skinner has been very sick the past week, and is being cared for at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Crowl.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Bloom and their little son, of Hagerstown, are spending this week in Shepherdstown with Mrs. Mrs. Harry M. Brown and her little son, of Clarksburg, W. Va , visited Mrs.

Virginia Harrison in Shepherdstown the Misses Anna and Mabel Webb, of Wilmington, Del., are visiting their aunt, Francisco. Mrs. John L. Creamer, at Shenandoah and friends in Martinsburg and Berkeley where they will spend a month with rel-

Mr. William Rightstine, who is a clerk in a drug store in Richmond, Va., is at

Master Lee Goldsborough has gone to Massachusetts, where he expects to spend

Miss Elizabeth Spohn is here from York, Pa., to spend a few weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Spohn. Mr. Eugene B. Hanckel, of Philadelphia, is in Shepherdstown this week visiting his aunt, Mrs. Rutherford Wysong.

Mrs. James M. Myers has returned to her home in this place, after a visit of several months with friends in Pittsburg. Mr. Robert Gardiner, who has been in New Orleans the past year, is in Shep-herdstown for a part of his vacation. Misses Nellie and Mary Moore, of field in Shepherdstown recently.

Miss Virginia Sperry, of Harper's Ferry, visiting Miss Corinne Rogers.

Miss Bessie Williamson spent several Gaunt, near Berryville. Miss Mollie Emery, of Martinsburg, spent last week here with the family of Mr. Michael Wright. a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Pearson, in a visit to her uncle in New York.

Mrs. Minnie Zittle, of Middletown, Md.

Lawn Fete Saturday Night. The lawn fete to be held on the old college lawn Saturday night of this week is expected to be a very enjoyable affair. Entertainment will be provided for all and the people generally are invited to attend. The usual refreshments will be soldicecream and cake, home-made candies. old Virginia chicken soup and other good things-and pretty girls will serve them. The grounds will be decorated with the Death Is Ever Busy.

Many expressions of sorrow were heard here Tuesday evening when the news of of Winchester, was made public. A telephone message was received here giving the details of his death about five o'clock. It appears that Mr. Berry was taken ill about three o'clock with angina pectoris, and though Dr. Maguire was quickly summoned, the heart was so seriously involved that there was but little hope, and about five o'clock he suddenly passed away, having been sick only a couple of Shepherdstown, where he frequently Reinhart and, they learn of his death with much regret. He was a genial, companionable man, kind and courteous, and all who knew him liked him. His father was the late Rev. Dr. Berry, a Presbyterian minister who lived in Jefferson county many years ago. Mr. Berry, who was 62 years of age, was a druggist ceed to the Yellowstone Park and the of skill, and though he had not been ac-Panama exposition in San Francisco. This tively engaged in business for some time, he often helped out the druggists of this of the son, Harry W. Byerly, assistant section in cases of emergency. He was new names to its subscription list the immigration agent of the Northern Pacific in Shepherdstown about ten days ago, visiting his daughter. Besides his daughter, Mrs. Reinhart, he is survived by his visiting her relatives in Kansas and other | wife, who was formerly Miss Lucy Manning. The funeral takes place today, and one was ever before able to land him, construction comparatively simple, and the body will be laid to rest in the cemetery at Charles Town.

John S. Herrington, a well-known resident of Martinsburg, died at his home in that place last Friday night, following an illness of five years from paralysis. Mr. Herrington was a native of Shepherdstown, having been born here 65 years ago. Dubel, of Buffalo, N. Y., are guests in the His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Herrington, both of whom are long since deceased, moved from this place to Martinsburg when he was a child. Mr. Herrington was employed in the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad shops in that city for 44 be right. years. He is survived by his widow, formerly Miss Sarah E. Light, to whom he was married February 22, 1875, and the following children: Mrs. Samuel Kennedy, Mrs. Mervel Lynn, Mrs. A. J. Gano, Dr. Frederick A. Conradi, a practicing physician of Baltimore, aged 68 years, died at his home in that city last Saturday night from cancer of the stomach. He was the father of Arthur Conradi, the violinist, who married Miss Louise Welshans, of Shepherdstown. Dr. Conradi was formerly a clergyman of the Lutheran Church, but created a good deal of surprise some twenty years ago when he gave up the church he had served for a score of years and went into the practice of medicine. He is survived by his wife, four sons and a daughter.

Joseph N. Painter, a former resident of Martinsburg, died Tuesday at his home in Canton, N. C., in the 88th year of his age. He was a wheelwright by occupatheir three children, of Martinsburg, have tion, and lived in Martinsburg until about fifteen years ago, when he moved to Canton. He is survived by three children: John Painter and Mrs. Maude Slaughter, of Canton; and Mrs. Lula Hess, of Roanvisiting Mrs. Emmons' parents, Mr. and oke. Mr. Painter was a brother-in-law of Mrs. Cornelia Coffinbarger, of Shepherdstown. The body will be interred in Martinsburg on Friday.

Wednesday, aged 82 years, and her re- martialed and found guilty of making way mains were taken to Charles Town for with the treasure. He could not be inburial Friday morning. She was a daugh- duced to tell what he had done with the ter of the late Dr. W. E. Raum, who was money, and so was sent to prison, where ago. She lost her mind when a young woman, regaining it during her latter years, but preferred to remain at the institution. There was a large family, but the box and found the money still intact. all are dead or gone from this section, a He lived in Washington for a number of brother who is quite wealthy living in San

Mrs. Smith, widow of Rev. Dr. L. L. Smith, of Strasburg, Va., died at her home Mrs. Michael Wright and her daughter, there yesterday. Mrs. Smith had been Miss Agnes Wright, are visiting relatives an invalid for a number of years, but her For Co-operative Fruit Selling. last illness was only for a few days. She became seriously ill on Sunday last, and Mrs. 1. S. Myers and her daughter vesterday morning at 1.25 o'clock she from Morgan county and Frederick coun-Ruth have gone to Hampshire county, passed away, surrounded by her children, ty, Va., attended a meeting of orchardists who had been summoned to her bedside. Mrs. Smith, whose maiden name was Brown, was a native of Winchester.

his home in Shepherdstown for his vaca- and Mrs. Frank A. Miller, of Spring Mills, after a brief illness, and Monday night the subject of co-operative fruit selling. month with Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence R. their son Franklin Lemen Miller, aged Dr. Bassett recommended the organizadeath was caused by peritonitis, following an attack of appendicitis.

John L. Lewis, a greatly esteemed resiyear of his age. He was a Confederate veteran, having served with fidelity during the Civil War as a member of Company B. Twelfth Virginia Cavalry. He is survived by his wife, a son and two daugh-

The Rumsey Monument.

Charles Town, visited Mrs. L.T. Potter- the foundations for the monument to James Rumsey have made considerable progress the past week. The blasting on has been in Shepherdstown the past week the bluff has been about completed, and will elect a president, vice-president, at 7.30 a.m. Applicants will please notify now in course of construction. The stone | inspector. days the past week with Miss Virginia wall that will surround the platform is being built of native blue limestone, which makes a very pleasing appearance.

The Forbes Granite Company, which has the contract for the erection of the monument, has definitely decided to use Mrs. B. S. Pendleton has returned from Woodstock granite, and has awarded the contract for furnishing the stone to the Guilford and Waltersville Granite Com-Misses Anna and Grace Wageley are pany, of Baltimore, which operates quarvisiting friends and relatives in Berkeley ries at Woodstock, Md. The monument, which is an Ionic column, will weigh some 300 tons, and will rest on a granite is at the Hotel Rumsey to spend a few base weighing 25 or 30 tons. The column will be of drums of uniform size, and will Miss Helen Boswell has returned from be surmounted by a granite globe weighing eight tons, representing the earth, with the continents in relief and highly polished. The memorial will be 75 feet high and five feet in diameter. Mr. Forbes will have the work pushed along as fast as possible, but is not yet able to announce when it shall be completed. The imposing situation on which the monument is to stand has been visited by many persons recently, who greatly admire the beautiful view up and down the > Best drug store, largest prescription business, and registered pharmacist al-

Hagerstowner Gets the Big Bass.

Gorman S. Bussard, of Hagerstown, caught the big bass that has sported in in the project by which Shepherdstown the sudden death of Mr. A. Holmes Berry, the Potomac river above Shepherdstown is to be provided with a system of waterthe past several years and which has works, reports this week that the subbeen the joy and despair of scores of scriptions to the bonds to be issued now fishermen. And he caught it on a Sun- amount to nearly $50,000, and he expresses day! In company with A. O. Keedy, his confident belief that the full amount Mr. Bussard came here last Sunday and will speedily be subscribed. The local the two spent the day on the river fishing. subscriptions amount to about $10,600. They didn't have much luck until Mr. and this is more than was at first asked Bussard put a six-inch stonecat on his for. It is realized, however, that the hook and cast it as far as he could. There more money is raised locally the greater was a jerk and a pull and then a cataclysm | the interest will be in the proposition, so hours. Mr. Berry had many friends in in the water as the mightiest bass that all who are willing to invest are urgently has been taken in these waters for many desired to do so. Mr. Ringgold is in visited his daughter, Mrs. Edward L. years struggled for freedom. After a communication with capitalists in the game fight Mr. Bussard succeeded in western part of this State who have agreed landing the big fish, which weighed six to take considerable blocks of the bonds, pounds and two ounces, and later carried and we hope soon to announce that the him off to Hagerstown in triumph.

Fishermen for three or four years have been trying to catch this famous old bass, ple are so deeply interested in the enterwhich showed himself frequently in the prise, for the whole community seems stretch between Bellevue and the one- anxious for its success. The waterworks mile lock. Almost everybody who has naturally suggests sewerage, and the senfished in this part of the river has seen | timent is equally strong for this modern him from time to time as he would rush necessity. It is proposed that the corthe minnows up on the sandbar or make poration of Shepherdstown shall-install a tremendous splash as he leaped from the sewerage, which can be done so adthe quiet waters. Many efforts have been vantageously in connection with the wamade to catch him, and it is believed that terworks. Practically the whole town he has been hooked several times, but no naturally drains toward the river, making The lucky Hagerstowner is envied by all the town has the right to use the main our local fishermen, some of whom would sewer constructed by the State for Shephave given twenty dollars for the honor | herd College several years ago, and which of capturing such a prize.

E. D. Bowly holds to the optimistic opinion that the fish taken Sunday is not | installation of a tine system of waterworks the bass that we have all been trying for. and for sewerage, and we very ardently He says that our fish is much larger—that | trust that these long-cherished hopes may he has seen it several times and that it is | be realized. much nearer the proportions of a whale than the one taken Sunday. Mr. Bowly's veracity as a fisherman is well established, and somehow we are hoping that he may

The "Money Tree" is Gone. The old "money tree" is at last deoak was partially destroyed when a storm broke its mighty trunk, but its roots were continued to live. Decay set in however, and little by little the grand old tree weakgreen leaves once more, for still the sap night. pressed upward and a final effort was made to withstand approaching death. The end came last week, however, for a passing storm twisted the weakened fragment that was left and the old tree that had been a conspicuous object along this road for more than a hundred years fell prostrate to the ground. It is believed that the tree was nearly 200 years old. The history of this tree has been told in the Register heretofore. It gained renown by reason of having sheltered for seven or eight years a fortune of $65,000. A Union paymaster during the Civil War herdstown at 11 a. m. hid between its roots this amount of money that had been entrusted to his care, and reported that it had been captured from him by the Confederates. His story was Miss Virginia Raum died at Weston last shown to be false, and he was court-his crime.

years. As soon as he was released he came by night to the giant oak that he years, but his money did him little good, disgrace that clung to him as the result of

A number of apple growers from Jefferson and Berkeley counties and a few in Martinsburg on Tuesday. C. W. Boyer, president of the Berkeley County Horticultural Society, called the meeting to A double bereavement has befallen Mr. order and stated the object of the gathering, after which he introduced Dr. C. E. Berkeley county. On July 11th their little Bassett, of the Department of Agriculture daughter, Hilda, aged four years, died at Washington, who made an address on eleven years, passed away at the King's tion of a selling agency, not a stock com-Daughters' Hospital in Martinsburg. His pany or a profit sharing enterprise, but a distinctively co-operative organization. The idea is to get the orchardists' fruit on the market at the least possible expense dent of this county, died last Sunday night and at the same time secure the maximum at his home near Middleway, in the 76th price for the grower. It is claimed that this plan has worked admirably in many other sections. He cited many instances where the fruit growers had banded themselves together, and then supported his statements by producing the facts. A committee to nominate directors recommended the following, who were elected: D. Gold Miller, M. L. Dorn, I. W. Wood, The workmen employed in preparing G. B. Wiltshire, H. L. Alexander, S. N. Myers, C. C. Westrater, C. W. Boyer, Grav Silver, William Somers, S. H. Fulton and Vernon E. Johnson. The directors the concrete platform forty feet square is secretary, treasurer manager and general me by 'phone or mail.

Special Term of Circuit Court. At a recent term of the Jefferson Circuit Court the following business was

E. Baker's administrator vs. Wm. A. Morgan's administrator. Report of C. N. Campbell filed and leave granted to at- Saturday, July 24, 1915, torney to file exceptions to said report on or before the 18th of August.

Charlotte K. Fayman vs. Harry E. Mundey. Defendant having demurred to bill of plaintiff, after consideration court overruled said demurrer. Defendant, H. E. Mundey, is given until 1st day of next term of court to file his answer. J. T. Campbell vs. Wm. E. Myers et al. Report of special commissioners James sale of real estate to the corporation of Charles Town, was confirmed by the B. Conrad, H. T. Miley, J. Wm. Childs, M. B. Bane, L. L. Watson and Jas. H. Myers as trustees of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, of Summit Point,

M. Mason, Jr., F. L. Bushong, T. C.

Green and C. N. Campbell, showing a was confirmed by the court. State of West Virginia vs. Northern tively new, 40 x 60 feet. Miss Sperow's as attractive as possible. Let everybody ways in charge at Owens & Miller's drug Virginia Power Co., defendants. De-

The Waterworks Project.

Rowland C. Ringgold, the moving spirit whole amount has been raised.

We are gratified to know that our peo-

The time seems very propitious for the Notes of the Churches. An able and impressive sermon was preached by Rev. Dr. Charles Ghiselin at the open-air service last Sunday evening, his text being, "But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto stroyed. This famous old land-mark you." He expounded the Scripture earnalong the lower pike, a mile or two south estly, to the edification of the large conof Martinsburg; Mrs. William Haas, of of Shepherdstown, has completely suc- gregation that was present. Service will Baltimore; Mr. C. E. Herrington, of cumbed to the ravages of time and fire be held as usual Sunday evening at 6.30, and storm. Many years ago this giant with Rev. I. D. Worman, of the Lutheran Church, in charge,

Episcopal Church-Next Sunday Rev. deep and its lower branches revived and W.P. Chrisman, Archdeacon, will, D. V., preach in Trinity Church, Shepherdstown, at 10.30 in the morning, and in the Chapel ened and drooped. Last summer a fire of the Good Shepherd at Duffields at 8 p. burned in its hollow walls for several m. The mission services at Duffields days, and it was thought then that it must | will continue Thursday, Friday and Sunquickly die. But this spring it put out day nights at 8 p.m., closing Sunday

There will be services in the Presbyterian Church Sunday, if Providence permits, in Shepherdstown at 10.30 a. m. and at Kearneysville at 8 p. m.

Rev. E. Glenn Switzer was on . Tuesday ordained and installed as pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Berkeley Springs, this State. M. E. Church-Service Sunday in Shepherdstown at 10.30 a. m. and in Sharps-burg at 8 p. m. Lutheran - Service Sunday in Shep-

Prof. Thos. C. Miller, principal of Shepherd College, returned from Charleston a physician in Charles Town fifty years he served his sentence of some seven Schley, the check delivered to them, and the property now belongs to the State of West Virginia, Mr. Miller reports that had marked well, and there he dug up State Architect Warne is now at work Shepherd College dormitory to be erected on this location, and as soon as these are for he was never able to rid himself of the the contract let. The plans call for a two stories and basement, of colonial design, which will be in keeping with the architecture of the other school buildings and an ornament to that section of the town. Mr. Miller has worked long for this dormitory, and we congratulate him upon this step which means a speedy fruition of his efforts.

Superintendent Appointed. The county commissioners held a meeting Monday, with N. R. Roberts, president, and B. J. Miles, C. D. Wysong and Chas. H. Moore present, Daniel Heflehower being absent on account of sickness. They appointed Miss Janie Littleton superintendent of the county infirmary, with Miss Fannie Littleton assistant, to fill the places made vacant by the death of James Littleton and Miss Kate Littleton. The Misses Littleton have had long having been in charge continuously for 42 years. The court decided to operate firmary. At present there are about 40

TEACHERS' EXAMINATION.

The third uniform examination for teachers' certificates will be held in the high school building in Charles Town on July 22d and 23d, commencing each day

JAMES GRANTHAM, County Superintendent, P. O. Kearneysville, W. Va.

Big Clearance Sale, Commencing at 11 o'clock A. M., 40 Emerson Forged-Steel Buggies.

53 Sets Double and Single Harness, 4,000 rods American and Lion Field and Poultry Two good new spring wagons, one new forse wagon.

Five new Sharples Separators.

One 4-inch-tread new two-horse Auburn wagon

Two Good Driving Horses, one 8 and the other 10 years old.

One second-hand Storm buggy.

One three-seated second-hand Surrey Eight Vulcan two and three-horse chilled plows-Four 18-tooth Perry Harrows.

At 4 o'clock prompt we will give away one $40 Steel Range to the party on hand with the lucky

ANNOUNCEMENT

The National Highway Garage announces that it has secured the agency for the famous for Shepherdstown and vicinity, and will sell all styles of this popular car. In addition, a full line of Ford repairs and accessories will be kept in stock, so that, with a first-class mechanic always on duty, the service will be of the highest standard. If you are interested, call on or address

FORD CARS

National Highway Garage, SHEPHERDSTOWN, W. VA.

Overland and Ford Cars.

Kills Lice, Mites, Fleas and Ticks.

DESTROYS DISEASE GERMS AND CURES DISEASES OF ALL LIVE STOCK AND POULTRY.

DISINFECTS. PURIFIES. CLEANSES. INEXPENSIVE.

ASK FOR FREE BOOKLETS,

OWENS & MILLER,

Most Up-to-date Drug Store in the County. Wholesale and Retail. Delivery Everywhere. Mail Orders Solicited.

> Phone leff, 15k. Night call 35k. Prescriptions Filled by Registered Pharmacist only.

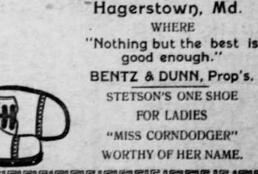

SUMMER HOSIERY, in Cotton, Lisle and Silk. There are Stockings here for every member of the family, in grades from 10c to $1,00white, black and colors, Let this store supply your wants in the DRY, GOODS line. You'll always find dependable quality at moderate prices.

NOTICE.

We have recently installed at our Duffields elevator an up-to-date mill, with the OLD-TIME STONE BURRS, for the manufacture of Corn-meal, which we will have on hand at all times for exchange or sale, wholsale or retail. Also CRACKED CORN, BRAN, MIDDLINGS.

And H. & S. Alfalfa Horse and Dairy Feed in stock for sale at our elevators at Duffields and Reedson. A share of your REED & MYERS.

DUFFIELDS, W. VA.

H. G. SNYDER Keedysville, Md.